“If I could give 10 out of 5 as a rating... I would.

Stuart doesn't just come into your life. He is a sign of serious and permanent change and growth. If you show up and do the work, your life will never be the same.

He is SO talented at what he does, super intuitive and he approaches every person differently with what they need as an individual. He is honest, which is refreshing and challenging, but ultimately means that you will become a much better version of yourself. He is also a hilarious and engaging speaker, but he truly and genuinely cares about every single person he meets. A phenomenal human and working with him was the best thing I have ever done, both personally and professionally”. Monica Ferguson.
